Here's what to expect during the meeting:

When you join on the phone, you'll be asked to hold until the meeting starts.

NOTE: It will be silent while you hold, but staff will keep you posted on when the meeting is about to begin, and remind you how to enter the queue to answer a question.

To enter the queue to ask a question, you'll enter *3 (star three) on your telephone keypad.

Sen. Merkley's staff will call on questioners on a first-come basis, and Sen. Merkley will answer as many questions as time allows. If you come up in the queue, staff will unmute you to ask your question.
